

RISECCOLI

A WINERY IN TUSCANY

RECENT NEWS

RISECCOLI AND ROBERTO PRONZATO STAGE-MANAGE “AN EVENING WITH TENUTA RISECCOLI” AT THE THÉÂTRE DU PALAIS-ROYAL IN PARIS

(28 March 2011)

On 30th May, Roberto Pronzato together with Fine Wine World, the exclusive importer of Tenuta RISECCOLI's wines in France, are stage-managing “An Evening with Tenuta RISECCOLI.” The event will feature a tasting of a number of wines from the estate paired with Tuscan delicacies from Roberto's legendary Italian deli, “1000 Pates,” located on the rue des Petits-Champs in the 1st arrondissement in Paris and famous amongst French lovers of Italian cuisine and fine wines.

Benoit Romanelli-Faure will be on hand from RISECCOLI to present the wines to up to 50 guests at this exclusive private event to be held in the Théâtre du Palais-Royal near the Louvre museum in the heart of the French capital.

According to Roberto Pronzato, his deli “specializes in supplying the best regional products from Piemonte, Toscana, Veneto, Campania, Sardegna, etc. and Tenuta RISECCOLI perfectly fits with our philosophy to introduce exceptional artisan products to French gourmets and connoisseurs.”

The deli (épicerie-traiteur) offers fresh seasonal products from all over Italy such as white truffles and other delicacies (like burrata as well as extra-virgin olive oils from Tuscany) and of course fine wines. Roberto was recently recognised by “Viva Italia”, (the Italian supplement to Le Figaro Magazine celebrating the 150th anniversary of the unification of Italy), as the most prominent Italian épicerie fine in Paris.

For more information about this event or future events featuring the RISECCOLI wines, please email info@riseccoli.com or visit www.riseccoli.net. And for more on events with Fine Wine World in Paris, please visit www.fine-wine-world.com or send an email to infovin@fine-wine-world.com.